SHARED EVENTS

València's Sailor's Holy Week includes three shared events featuring all the groups involved in the celebrations. These three events are the Visit to the Sacred Monuments on Holy Thursday, the General Procession of the Burial on Good Friday's evening and, finally, the Resurrection Parade at early afternoon on Easter Sunday.

VISIT TO THE SACRED MONUMENTS

29ND MARCH - HOLY THURSDAY AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

The church of Santa María del Mar holds the Act of the Profecy on Holy Thursday at 20.00 h. This event is followed by the Processional Visit to the Sacret Monuments, in which processional images, biblical characters and armed groups (the Pretorianos, the Sayones, the Longinos and the Granaders) do not take part. This procession is only accompanied by the sound of drums. At the head of the parade, representatives of each group enter all four temples to pray before each monument. This procession is usually over around 22.00 h.

GENERAL PROCESSION OF THE HOLY BURIAL

30RD MARCH - GOOD FRIDAY AND THE PASSION AND DEATH OF THE LORD

This is the key event in València's Sailor's Holy Week. All Holy Week groups take part in it, along with their processional images, biblical characters and accompanying musicians. This solemn itinerary through the Passion and Death of Our Lord Jesus Christ shows our Holy Week's important artistic heritage and goes across all four parishes. The procession starts at 18.30 h and ends around 01.30 AM in the Parish of Nuestra Señora del Rosario (Our Lady of the Rosary) with the emotional entrance of the Crist Jacent (Recumbent Christ).

RESURRECTION PARADE

1ST APRIL - EASTER SUNDAY

The Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ brings joy and bliss to this zenithal event in València's Sailor's Holy Week. A truly Mediterranean burst of colours lights the whole itinerary. The groups, devoid of processional images and floats, is cheered and applauded by attendants. In return, biblical characters throw flowers. Accompanying music gets brighter, with happy marches to go with the glorious times of Easter. The Resurrection Parade, which also goes through all four parishes, starts at 13.00 h and ends around 14.30 h.
